

OLD FLORIDA HERITAGE HIGHWAY

1. Native Americans called this traveling naturalist who visited Paynes Prairie in 1774 "Puc Puggy," or the Flower Hunter. Who was this?

2. What unique geological feature did William Bartram call "the Great Savannah"?

3. What flocks of large birds that winters around Paynes Prairie can be seen during migrations in November and February circling and formation flying, and "dancing" during mating season, and sometimes a few individual birds remain year round?

4. What Pulitzer Prize-winning novelist live here while she wrote "The Yearling"?

5. What building houses the Evinston community Post Office?

6. What state wildflower blooms each spring around Evinston?

7. What type of insect makes a cocoon?

8. The Carriage House behind the Herlong Mansion in Micanopy once house what type of domestic animal?

9. Where is a "Florida Under Five Flags" display to illustrate the history of the State of Florida as it was claimed by the Spanish, French, British, Confederacy and United States of America?

10. Dolls made of palm fiber are clothed in miniature patchwork outfits on display at the Micanopy Historical Society Museum are made by which Native American tribe?

Answers:
1. William Bartram
2. Paynes Prairie
3. Sandhill Cranes

4. Marjorie Kinnan Rawlings House & Farm
5. Wood and Swink General Store
6. Coreopsis
7. Butterflies

8. Horses
9. Micanopy Historical Museum
10. Seminole