

SCENIC HIGHWAY 30-A

Check it off!

1. Did you know that Highway 30A's coastal dune lakes are some of the rarest bodies of water on Earth? Other than Scenic Highway 30-A, what 4 other locations in the world can they be found?
2. Can you list all 13 of the very rare coastal dune lakes along Scenic Highway 30A?
3. What butterfly is capable of making transatlantic crossings and has Scenic Highway 30-A on their migration route?
4. The collection of Louis XVI furniture at the Wesley House in Eden State Gardens is the _____ largest in the United States?
5. How did the Timpoochee Trail and bike path get its name?
6. Which 3 of the 19 officially designated Florida Scenic Highways are actually along the beach?
7. What two films were shot on the Scenic 30-a Corridor?

Answers:
 1. Madagascar, Australia, New Zealand, the Northwest Pacific Coast of the United States.
 2. Campbell Lake, Morris Lake, Stallworth Lake, Lake Allen, Oyster Lake, Draper Lake, Big Red Fish Lake, Little Red Fish Lake, Alligator Lake, Western Lake, Deer Lake, Eastern Lake and Camp Creek Lake.
 3. Monarch butterflies
 4. Second
 5. The 19-mile Timpoochee Trail that runs parallel to Scenic Highway 30A was named for Sam Story, also called Timpoochee Kinnard, who was Chief of the Walton County, Florida, band of Euchee (Yuchi) Indians in the early 1800s.
 6. Big Bend Scenic Byway (portions in Franklin County), Scenic Highway 30A (Walton County), and Pensacola Scenic Bluffs Highway (Escambia County).
 7. One: The Frogs is a 1972 classic horror film that was shot in and around the Wesley House, an old southern mansion located in Eden Gardens State Park in the town of Point Washington, situated on Tucker Bayou off Choctawhatchee Bay. The movie stars Ray Willard, Sam Elliott, Joan Van Ark, and Adam Roarke. Two: The Truman Show is a 1998 comedy-drama movie which was shot entirely on location in Seaside. Jim Carrey is the actor who stole the show.